OUR IMPACT

Since our founding in 1999, Bottomless Closet has helped nearly 50,000 New York City women in need on their journeys to enter or re-enter the workforce.

In 2023, Bottomless Closet met a 50% increase in demand, providing 1,578 women with career-appropriate clothing, resume help, interview prep, and more.

For those clients who came in for a follow-up appointment, we learned that 65% were hired for a full-time job.

Of all clients visiting us for pre-interview appointments, 98% of women said they felt more confident and prepared after utilizing our programs.

Your donations support the critical services Bottomless Closet provides to NYC women in need.

These services (on-site and online) include interview coaching, ongoing mentoring for job success, money management basics, donated clothing for interviews, and so much more!

You can make your gift here!

Thank you so much for your generosity!
